

PROCLAMATION

BY THE

Governor of the State of Texas

41-760
 REPRODUCED FROM THE HOLDINGS OF THE
TEXAS STATE ARCHIVES

ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME:

I am vetoing and filing with the Secretary of State Senate Bill Number 32 relating to removing Gillespie and Kimble Counties from the Third Administrative Judicial District of Texas to the Sixth Administrative Judicial District of Texas. The reason for my veto is that said Senate Bill No. 32 inadvertently places Coke County in two Administrative Judicial Districts, to wit, the Seventh and the Eighth. In addition, Cooke County has been omitted from the Bill. If the bill were approved, Cooke County would not lie in any Administrative Judicial District in Texas. Because of this error, the only recourse is to veto Senate Bill Number 32.

Senate Bill Number 32 was received in the Governor's office less than ten (10) days prior to the adjournment of the First Called Session of the Fifty-fifth Legislature, and in accordance with the Constitution, the bill, together with this proclamation, is being filed with the Secretary of State.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto signed my name officially and caused the Seal of State to be affixed hereto at Austin, this the 2nd day of December, A. D., 1957.
